

Jeff Black Bio

JEFF BLACK was born in Kansas City Missouri and lives in Nashville TN. Sam Bush has championed him with recording many of his songs including "Same Ol' River" and "King Of The World". Jeff co-wrote the title track to Sam's Grammy nominated album "Circles Around Me".

His songs appear on recordings by Alison Krauss, Waylon Jennings, Jerry Douglas, Dierks Bently, John Oates, Blackhawk, Jo-el Sonnier and the soundtracks of "The Thing Called Love" The acclaimed PBS documentary "The Appalachians" and Sundance Film Festival's Grand Jury Prize Winner "Steel City". WUMB Boston listeners voted Black one of the top 100 Folk artists of the last 25 years. Black also appeared on Iris DeMent's 1992 debut album, Infamous Angel, lending backing vocals along with Jim Rooney and Hal Ketchum. Black's first album, Birmingham Road, was recorded with the members of the band Wilco, minus lead singer, Jeff Tweedy and produced by Susan Rogers (Prince, David Byrne). A master songwriter and troubadour, his soul driven live performances of songs from his vast catalog are not to be missed. Jeff Black's latest collection "A Walk In The Sun" features Sam Bush, Jerry Douglas, Dave Roe (Johnny Cash, Jake Bugg), Jerry Roe (Alison Krauss), Kenny Vaughan (Lucinda Williams, Marty Stuart). Produced by Jeff Black, mixed by Dave Sinko (Chris Thile, Punch Brothers) and is slated for release January 2020.
